FRIDAY AUGUST 14, 2020

UD in the news Aug. 7-14

All three TV stations, the Dayton Daily News and Ohio cable news outlet Spectrum News 1 covered the beginning of UD students returning to campus. NBC News, USA Today, MarketWatch, The Washington Post and outlets in five other countries are among those that shared political scientist and vice president selection expert Christopher Devine's insight into Election 2020.

The Daily Beast picked up Bill and Sue Trollinger's piece from The Conversation, "At the evangelical Creation Museum, dinosaurs lived alongside humans and the world is 6,000 years old."
